

PRESS RELEASE – January 16, 2018

If you missed it the first time, you'll have a second chance to see the show that everyone is talking about: The Pirates of Penzance, at Palo Verde College Theatre on Wednesday, February 7. The event starts at 6:45 PM in the Fine Arts Courtyard with a dessert reception, photo opportunities with costumed characters, and an opportunity drawing for a basket filled with personal care and entertainments items valued at over $800.00. The fun continues at 7:30 PM with a one hour performance of highlights from Gilbert and Sullivan's rollicking Pirates of Penzance, featuring Travis Dean as The Pirate King, Roy Armenta Jr. as Freddy, and Jennifer Arneson as Mabel. There will be special cameo appearances by Brian Thieboux as Major General Stanley and Julene Marquez as Ruth. The comical tale is about an unwilling pirate who falls in love with a girl who is out of his reach. This is great family entertainment so bring the kids! Tickets are $10 and proceeds will go toward Rotary and PVC Choir Club Scholarships. Tickets for the opportunity drawing will be sold separately. Tickets can be purchased through PVC Choir and Rotary Club members as well as at the PVC Business Office.
